RAILROAD SPURS.

THE PROJECTED CONNECTIONS OF THE ATLANTIC AND DANVILLE.

Tapping the Lumber and Truck Sections-Badly Hurt by a Fall-Personal Notes.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.) NORFOLE, VA., March 21, 1888. The surveyors of the Atlantic and Danville road are engaged in running spurs from the main track to all the lum-ber and trucking centres of Norfolk and Nansemond counties, so as to give all sorts of shipping stuff quick dispatch from their wharves near Craney island. The Western Branch section of Norfolk county is a perfect network of railroads, and the commissioners of fevenue estimate that the increase of taxable railroad property in that section this year will fully offset the loss in taxables to the county by the annexation of Brambleton

Mr. J. B. Mott, a painter, was badly injured yesterday by falling twenty feet from a broken ladder while working on Granby street.

Counterfet coin of various denominations continues in circulation here, notwithstanding the alleged Italian shovers have been in jail for several weeks. No-thing has been heard from Washington in regard to the Italians. It is thought a case can be made against them in Richmond.

The family of Mr. George M. Bain will soon make an effort to secure a pardon for him from the President. A good many vessels blown out to sea by the late terrific gale are now arriving in port. Atlantic City is to have a free bridge connecting that suburb with Norfolk. The engineers of the yards and docks department of the navy-yard are preparing a large lot of new work to be done as soon as an appropriation is allowed. A street railway is to be constructed through the yard, and there are to be
